

Benefits if you spend a semester abroad

Courses

You can choose from a variety of interesting lectures, workshops and seminars. We offer a full course load of 30 ECTS in English. Courses taught in German are also available if you have a good command of German. You can attend German language classes to learn some German or to improve your German skills.

Our current course offer can be found on our website at www.dhbw-vs.de/en/incomings.

Small classes guarantee the best possible outcome for all students.

Classes at DHBW Villingen-Schwenningen have a highly interactive approach and involve innovative learning methods. Our aim is to introduce you to an intercultural work environment by interacting with other international and local students while experiencing academic life in Germany. All courses are taught by lecturers, trainers, consultants and executives who contribute cutting edge knowledge and expertise from their professional fields. We also invite lecturers from abroad so you can learn in an international environment. Case studies, business simulations and company visits provide unique practical experience.

The Baden-Wuerttemberg Cooperative State University (DHBW)

DHBW is the first state-run university in Germany to combine academic studies and practical workplace training, achieving a close integration of theory and practice, both of which are components of the dual study concept. With around 33,500 students and more than 9,000 companies and social institutions as corporate partners, DHBW is the largest university in the Federal State of Baden-Wuerttemberg. 12 locations and campuses offer study programs in the fields of business, social work, engineering and health.

Costs

You are responsible for your own living expenses, such as accommodation, transportation, possibly costs relating to a visa and health insurance. If you are from one of our partner universities, there is no tuition fee, but a small semester contribution to Student Services. Scholarships may be available, such as Erasmus+ or the Baden-Wuerttemberg scholarship. Details can be found on our website.

Accommodation

We will assist you in your search for accommodation in the local student dormitory, private accommodation or a shared apartment, depending on your preference.

International Club

The International Club is a student organization where you can meet, exchange views, ask for help and organize activities. Cooking events, day trips and weekend trips are successfully organized by the International Club. You are welcome to get involved and be part of the International Club during your time in Germany.

Buddy Program

Your buddy is a local student who will assist you during your time in Germany. They help you to get to know academic life and the city and are your contact in case of questions. The program is an opportunity to gain intercultural experience, share your interests, improve your language skills and participate in activities together.

Internships

DHBW Villingen-Schwenningen can support you in finding business-related internships with our partner companies in the region. Internships are possible all through the year. You need to have a good command of the German language (B1 or B2). Please send your application at least six months prior to the desired start of the internship to international.vs@dhw.de.
